

John M. Borek, Jr., Ph.D.

- Earned BBA, MBA and Ph.D. in Business Administration.
- Served as Liberty University President, 1997- 2004. President Emeritus.
- Served as SACS COC consultant, Liberty University President, 1997 and 2005.
- Served as consultant, Provost, President, Luther Rice University.
- Served on and chaired visiting committees and special committees for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission on Colleges, (SACS). Over 50 committees. Served on Criteria and Reports Committee.
- Serves on NCAA Evaluation Committee.
- Serves on and chairs visiting committees for the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS). Currently a TRACS Commissioner and Vice Chair of the Commission.
- Serves as a consultant for institutions seeking and maintaining accreditation. Over 20 institutions.
- Consults with institutions regarding planning, assessment, financial management student aid, and strategic planning.
- Served as a tenured faculty member in the Georgia State University (GSU), College of Business Administration. Taught undergraduate and graduate classes, including the capstone course on policy and Strategic Planning. Served on two SACS COC Steering Committees for GSU.
- Served as Comptroller, Associate VP, and Acting VP for Financial Affairs at Georgia State University. Associate VP Emeritus.
- Guest speaker, facilitator, instructor, including graduation speaker, for various organizations.
- Served as Instructor for the U.S. Government.
- One of the founders and Board member of a bank and a HMO. Served as a board member of two different HMOs.
- Served as CEO and board member of several for-profit organizations as well as a credit union and an investment company.
- U.S. Army Officer, Reserves. Retired.
- One of the founders and a former chairperson of a non-profit foundation that funds health related projects. Current a Board member and officer of the Foundation.
- Co-Founder of a Christian institution of higher learning.
- Investment Advisor Representative (securities). Series 7 and 66.
- Licensed in GA for Insurance, including life, accident, sickness, and variable products.
- Rotary member -30 years.
- Ordained minister.
- Three honorary degrees.
- Advanced ground Instructor, Aviation