

Laura M. Tucker, M.P.A., A.B.D.

- Earned BS in Psychology, Masters in Public Administration, and finalizing dissertation for a Ph.D. in Political Science.
- Serves as a consultant for institutions seeking and maintaining regional, national, and program accreditation. Over 15 institutions.
- Served as Vice President, The Institute for the Psychological Sciences, a SACS COC accredited institution.
- Served as Budget Officer, Financial Planning Director, Sponsored Programs Director, Human Resources Manager.
- Served as consultant and Associate Vice President for Finance and Administration, Liberty University.
- Served as Administrative Manager, School of Physics, Georgia Institute of Technology (GA Tech).
- Served as a SACS COC and TRACS consultant, Luther Rice University.
- Served on visiting committees for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission on Colleges, (SACS).
- Serves on visiting committees for the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS).
- Served on joint visiting committee with The Association of Theological Schools (ATS) and SACS COC.
- Consults with higher education institutions regarding planning, assessment, financial management, student aid, and strategic planning.
- Served as instructor of Political Science Department at Georgia State University (GSU).
- Served as Chair of Board for private, non-profit higher education institution.
- Served as Board member for several for-profit organizations.
- Managed several successful for-profit organizations.
- Served as consultant with a variety of for-profit organizations, including writing business plans.
- Served as consultant for a non-profit health foundation.
- Co-Founder of a Christian institution of higher learning.
- One of the founders of a successful for-profit educational services and support organization.
- Designed and implemented financial planning and budget software, including forecasting models.
- Designed and implemented templates for addressing accreditation standards.